

CONTINUING EDUCATION UNITS (CEUs)

2023-2025 CYCLE OF THE MCEP

During the 2023-2025 cycle of the MCEP, licensees must complete mandatory OACIQ training courses and earn elective CEUs from among eligible training activities.

See below the total number of CEUs to be earned based on your licence type and date of issuance.

Any training activity must help protect the public and allow brokers and agency executive officers to acquire, maintain, update, improve and perfect the skills required in a real estate brokerage transaction, and must be related to at least one of the following topics:

- General or special legal rules that apply to brokerage transactions described in section 3.1 of the Real Estate Brokerage Act;
- Any legislative or regulatory reform other than the Real Estate Brokerage Act that may affect the activities of brokers and agencies;
- Content, use and drafting of contracts and forms relating to brokerage transactions described in section 3.1 of the Real Estate Brokerage Act;
- Any material, physical or environmental consideration that may affect the object of a brokerage transaction described in section 3.1 of the Real Estate Brokerage Act;
- Ethics and professional conduct of brokers and agency executive officers;
- Management of professional activities of brokers and agency executive officers;
- Assessment of the value of an immovable or enterprise;
- Assessment of the quality and construction features of an immovable;
- Financial implications of transactions described in section 3.1 of the Real Estate Brokerage Act;
- Financing of transactions described in section 3.1 of the Real Estate Brokerage Act.
